Open Source Licence – Cancer, Heart and Soft Tissue Environment (Chaste) – ("Software")

The University has undertaken research leading to the development of the Software and the University wishes to make the Software publicly available, without charge, for scientific use under the terms of an open source software licence. Accordingly the University makes available the Software on the terms set out in this letter.

The University grants to you, the party in receipt of a copy of this letter wishing to obtain and use copies of the Software, a licence to the Software under the terms of the Open Source Licence. No licence to use any intellectual property rights is granted or implied by this letter except the rights expressly granted in this letter.

In the event of any dispute, claim or proceeding arising out of or relating to this letter you agree to use good faith efforts to work with the University to resolve the same, involving where necessary senior executives of the parties. In the event that any disputes cannot be resolved in this matter then you agree that the matter shall be settled exclusively by reference to English law and the English courts.

You are not required to accept the contents of this letter, since you have not signed it. However nothing else grants you permission to download and use the Software. Therefore by downloading and using copies of the Software you accept the terms of this letter.

Yours faithfully

Dr Claire Perriton
Deputy Head, Research Services (Science Area Office)
